“ I met Stewart at Biggby almost a year ago, I enjoyed seeing him every morning when it was light out enough for him to come and on weekends when he would come in later in the morning. I enjoyed helping him figure out his heater in his car last year when the weather turned cold. He shared stories and and told jokes. I was very to sad to hear of his passing from the gentleman from his group at Biggby. I hadn't seen him in the last month and was getting worried. I am really going to miss Stewart. He is a very sweet, funny and easy to talk with. We also shared the same month of birth only his was eight days after mine.

“ Stewart was a very likable and polite individual. He was a good listener and was knowable about many topics. I will miss his humor and kindness.

“ Frank and I have connecting condos with Mr. Stewart and having him right next door had been a real pleasure though it was for only 10 months. When he came over to introduce himself, he apologized for not doing it sooner. That touched us and from then on we became great neighbors and looked forward to seeing him more often...He always had a joke and sweet compliments. He gave us some gifts that we will always cherish knowing they came from him. We would check on him and he was always pleasant and grateful...We wish we would have had more time with him, but he missed his wife terribly. Chrislie, it was a pleasure having your Dad right next door and you've been a phenomenal daughter to him. We miss him and we know you miss him even more..Rest in heaven with your wife and God, Mr. Stewart...

“ I have fond memories of Stewart at family gatherings. He was always cracking jokes or razzing someone and I can picture him in his khaki colored “safari suit”. At least that’s how I remember it back in the late 80’s. You will be missed. Rest peacefully with your beautiful wife Eileen.

“ MY DAD IS A STRONG, DEVOTED AND LOVING MAN AND FATHER. HE ALWAYS WORRIED ABOUT ME AND WANTED THE BEST FOR ME.

I KNOW THAT HE WAS LOST WITHOUT MY MOM WHEN SHE WENT TO HEAVEN AND WANTED NOTHING MORE THAN TO BE WITH HER.

I WISH THAT I COULD HAVE DONE MORE FOR HIM TO HELP HIM COPE WITH THE LONELINESS THAT HE FELT. HE WILL ALWAYS BE MY DAD AND I WILL MISS HIM AND LOVE HIM FOREVER.

BE AT PEACE FATHER AS YOU ARE NOW WITH YOUR LOVING WIFE, YOUR SOUL MATE.

“ Mr. Soffa, You're one of my favorites. I will never forget your amazing sense of humor!! You were a natural. I loved when you would come in, especially when you'd wear your red baseball hat with the crab on it and you'd never forget your chocolate! I'd love to hear one last joke, I'll miss you so much.
