Susan Haubenstricker, age 60, of Canton, Michigan, went home to be with her Lord on June 19, 2025 in the presence of her family after a courageous battle with heart disease.

Susan was the beloved wife of Tim Haubenstricker. The two were married on July 14, 2006, and shared nearly two decades of love, partnership, and cherished memories. Susan was a skilled physical therapist who thrived on helping others, especially her family. She enjoyed flowers and gardening, decorating, traveling, a good glass of wine, and good company with her friends and family.

She was the loving sister of Kathleen Thompson (Brigadier General Ret. Mark W. Thompson) and Patricia (Daniel) Fellows; and a devoted aunt to Victoria Fellows, Lillian Fellows, Emelia Thompson, Abigail Thompson, and Gabryelle Thompson. Susan also held a special place in her heart for her great-niece, Sophia Nissi Vestal Thompson.

Born to Harry Gibbs and the late Sandra Gibbs, Susan's life was marked by deep devotion to her family, faith, and community.

Beside her direct family, she provided incredible care to Tim's family including his parents Ralph and Irene, his brother Dan, and his sister Pam and her family Alan, Nicole, Kayla, and Jordan Miller.
