“ *Dear Mark, Jenna and Kristy,
I am so grateful to have the pleasure of being a friend of your wife/mother. I weny to college with tari and she was a fun and very loving friend. I know the pain you are feeling but I also know she is in Gods kingdom waiting to greet us when our tome has come. She will have her beautiful smile on her face.*

God be with you at this difficult time.

Love,

“ *Dear Mark, Jenna and Kristy, So sorry to hear of your loss. I am holding you all in prayer that you will feel God's peace and comfort. I loved walks with Tari, she always had a brilliant smile and positive outlook and had a compassionate, caring soul. We walked and talked about what our kids were doing in school and activities, and it was so clear how much she loved her girls and wanted them to be happy. Evan and Alex send their love to the girls and they are keeping them in prayer too. If we can help in any way, please keep us in mind, for rides to school or anything. Love, The Johnsons,
Tim, Susan, Evan and Alex*

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Tari will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Tari again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Tari seems like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)
