“ Dear Judy and Linda, We were driving down Newburgh today (Fri.) and happened to see your Dad's name on the list in front of Vermulin's. We were sorry to hear of his passing and pray he did not suffer. We will always remember the good times we had with your family, and especially your Dad's deep-happy laugh. Our sincere sympathy and love to you and your families.

“ I remember Uncle Ted and Aunt Irene driving out to Ortonville many times to visit with Us and the boys. They always had a dollar or two for the kids, and lots of fun conversations for us. They amused us with stories of their travels, rarely did they use the expressways, preferring the slower surface roads. Often they were lost for hours. On one of their last visits, Uncle Ted confessed, "We wanted to get lost!" We admired their sense of adventure, and will miss them both.

“ It's with a heavy heart I write this. Ted and Irene have been an important part of my family for many, many years. You see, Ted and my dad Ed were best buddies from the time they were very young boys. This was a friendship that was created on Earth and now will be reunited in Heaven. Mr. and Mrs. Sierak were life long friends to my parents and when times were tough for my mom and dad, the Sierak's were there to help them out. That's the kind of people they were. When I was young (which was a long time ago) Ted and Irene would come over and bring Linda. Linda is my age (sorry Linda for spilling the beans on our real age of 37). As we grew up, Linda stopped coming over but Ted brought Jerry over as much as he could. Ironically, many years later and through a mutual friend, Linda and I became reunited unbenounced to us that we shared the same friend. Truly a gift from God that we be brought together again. I lost my Dad four years ago and since that time, I thought of Ted as my "other father". We will miss you but we also know that you're in a GREAT place with great company. Linda, we share a special bond thanks to our parents. My sympathy and love go out to you and your family.
