“ I was so sorry to read about the loss of Terrence, and I would like to extend my condolences to your family. Having to cope with the loss of a loved one can be difficult, but God has promised a time when we can see our loved ones again (Isaiah 26:19; John 5:28,29). Until that time, please know you can rely on God for comfort (Psalms 55:22; 2 Corinthians 1:3,4).
Respectfully, T. Cherry

“ Terry worked for Manufacturers National Bank, and had many friends there. He came to our annual MNB Alumni event as long as his health permitted. He will be missed. These words may be of comfort to the family: Just a length'ning of the shadows, Just a short'ning of the breath, Just a graying of the features --- Is this dying? Is it death? Just a rest for weary footsteps, Just a folding of tired hands, Just a glimpse across the river Where the Holy City stands. Just a closing of the eyelids, Just a hush, why mourn and weep? So it is the Heavenly Father Giveth his beloved sleep. Death? As, yes, we call it dying, When six feet of earth is thrust O'er the temple of our loved ones, And dust returns to dust. But when all mists have vanished, And we meet on yon' bright shore, We shall know 'twas the entrance Unto life evermore.
