“ Mr Ted was our first neighbor to welcome us on Briarcliff when we moved there, and quickly him and Eva became like family. Every evening walk he would take, my kids would run and hug him and would always yell “Hi Mr Ted” whenever they saw him across the street. He was a kind and gentle man that talked so highly about his family and his Eva. You could tell there was a lot of love there. We will miss the little visits when we came back to Michigan and our catch up FaceTime calls. May you rest easy in the heavens above Mr Ted. We give our deepest condolences to your family and send lots of love and prayers.
