“ It may shock you to see a comment on this page after it has been over a year and a half however there is. My comment is here because I still come back and look at all the other comments and read the stories and memories of June. I do this because I sometimes need to remind myself that I'm not alone and that we all had to suffer her lost together. But, I also read them all because it makes me so happy that June was able to impact all these people in such powerful positive ways and how many people love her. She was such a great person. I miss her so much. And if your reading this that means your probably here reading the comments over again like I am. Maybe crying, maybe smiling at the funny memories of this amazing person , or maybe even regretting not visiting more or not doing this or saying that. But, no matter why your here I hope you all have a great day ahead of you and I just want you to know that your not alone. I love you so much.

“ I am just so sad to see Junes Obituarie before I could reunite with her one more time. My Husband Roger and I lived across the street from June and Ken on Bay Court for a couple of years. After we moved I thought of her and Ken and her girls so many times. June and I shared a lot of things over coffee at my kitchen table. She loved those girls of hers more then anything. And I remember her oldest grand children she just adored those children. I just loved hearing her say Ken is home I have to leave. Not because she had to but because she wanted to see him. Were has that kind of love gone to. I am not sure if the girls remember me my name is Kay. June I am so very sorry we lost touch but I never forgot you or your family. May she Rest in Peace and free from all worries and pain.

“ My memories of my Grandma is when she would come over and visit. To watch my boys get so excited that she was at our house. They would climb in the window shouting grandma ,Grandma is here. I know it touched you so much that kolby recognized that you got a new car.To watch you with them just touched my heart. Sometimes I would sit back and just take the moment in. I never got to thank you grandma for doing the things you would do for kids and I. All the times you took me school shopping and autumn. Along with all your all grand kids. You always had a big heart. You loved everyone of us in a different way. You loved us all unconditionally. You might have put us in our place a few times. But you loved no matter what. My greatest memory is the day I had Clayton you came over kissed him on the head and told me how beautiful he was. It's a memory I have a picture of and I hold dear to my heart. Please watch over you great great grandkids. They are gonna miss you so much . so will I. Your Kolby cheese is gonna miss you so much that is all he keeps telling me. Autumn will miss you the most. She always loved going camping with you and Grandpa. She couldn't wait every year to go. Thank you for all the great memories. I promise I will share every one with my kids. May you rest in peace and I will be seeing you.

“ My memories of June: sitting in the back of the church next to her husband, Ken; teasing everyone who gave Ken a 'peace be with you' hug by saying 'he's my husband, you can't have him', or 'hands off of my husband', a fun way to show her pride in and love for Ken. Serving communion, an active member of her church parish. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ To the family of June. From the few occasions I've had to visit with her, June was a very lovely and inspiring lady. She was a woman who was well respected and young at heart who seemed to always be involved in everything possible that her loved ones were doing. A family gatherer, a faith filled person full of wisdom who had your best interest in mind in everything she did. She was a true Wife, Mother, Grandmother in every sense of that commanding position. God may have called her "home" for now but I'm sure she is still willing to help all of you from above in any way she can. Just call on her, remember what her values were, and the way she thought and you will always have the right answer to "What Would Honey, Mom, Grandma, advise me to do"
My sincere condolences are with all of you during this difficult time,
Joyce K.
