“ Uncle Tom,

You were a very integral part of our lives. Here's a poem I thought would be appropriate for you.

*His Journey's Just Begun
by Ellen Brenneman*

Don't think of him as gone away his journey's just begun, life holds so many facets this earth is only one.

*Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.
Think how he must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.*

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much!

Thank you for all the fun family times, taking me sailing and always singing to me! You will be sorely missed!

“ Tom was part of our childhood and adulthood. More than 40 years! He always had a funny quip or joke and we shared many moments of laughter. He and our dad, Vince Small, had years of adventures at work, at the Eagles and while sailing. Dad always said the tellers at the bank chuckled every Friday when Mr. Small and Mr. Biggar came to together to cash their checks. Tom will be missed. You are all in my prayers. Joan Luther
