“ Some of the highlights of life were with Tommy , the biggest hearted man I've ever know. As a waitress gave us very poor service one night , instead of a low tip, Tommy went and talked to the person at the front desk, after finding out her story,he doubled her tip that day! Lobster right from Maine. Late night conversations,he was always up.. Met some people I never dreamed of meeting. But I always knew if I needed anything I could call Tommy he was always there like my brother and my best male friend ever. All the laughs and silliness will never be forgotten. You made a difference in all the lives you touched my friend . I will always love you Tommy ❤️❤️❤️

“ Tommy was full of surprises as I remember the day he stopped by to invite me over to gig with Devin and him, he stated he played the drums yet I had never heard or saw him act out drumming motions as most drummers do. Later that night he showcased his talents and I was impressed! Tommy also impressed my wife Kathy when he revealed he was a clothing designer for the American girl doll, but truly showcased his talents when at a Christmas party ate a pile of 15 chicken wings during a conversation lasting less than 3 minutes. I soon came to see that Tommy had a big heart and would do anything for you, a faithful side kick with huge personality that never disappointed. The time I spent with my friend will always bring a smile to my face and never be forgotten.
your buddy Nolan, rest in peace brother
