“ My first memories of Tom, were at Marcellus. He came to pick up Marg for a date, and one of us younger kids (I think Dennis), came down the stairs singing, "Tom Brown's got a little injun", because she was putting on makeup. Despite the teasing, he kept coming back. Even bringing us a Mr Ed board game once. He went on to marry my sister Marg, let me live with them during community college and after nursing school, and standing up as best man for my husband during our wedding. You may be a brother by marriage, but you earned the love and respect of a real brother. You will be greatly missed.

“ I am thinking of you, Marge, Amy, Chris and family. Sending love, hugs and prayers for strength and comfort. Tom was always so kind to my kids and I at church, home or anywhere we would see him. I know how good he was to you, Marge. He was a sweet and thoughtful person who will be missed. ❤️🙏❤️
