“ The world has lost a great human being! We loved going to the Nassau and talking basketball with Tom but I especially liked talking just about life. He was a great listener and his kind eyes and sincere smile always made my day better. We moved away from Mi but did talk to Tom recently and it felt like old home week. He will be sorely missed but Heaven has another angel. Sympathy to family and friends and lots of love to Tom on your journey home. Never forgotten!

“ Don and I loved when Tom was behind the bar at Nassau. He was a great conversationalist. He knew something about everything and was just great to talk to. Who talks about books with their bartender? We did! He often spoke of his family with fondness. We had missed seeing Tom after Nassau changed hands but often asked about him. He will be missed by so many. Our condolences to all of his family and friends as well as his former employees at Nassau. DON and MARY BETH DAWSON

“ Tommy sure was one of a kind. So very special in his own way. My heart hurts for his family and large circle of friends, of which my daughter and son in law were a big part of that circle. Mike and I too have memories of going to Nassau and sitting at the bar just to talk to Tommy and have the best bar burger ever. My older sister met Tommy at Kristen and Harold's wedding and she had an instant crush on him. Everytime she came into town after that, she would say "when can we go see Tommy!" I told him about her crush and he played into it, only like Tommy could. You will be missed Tommy but our memories of our times with you lives forever in our hearts. Love, Mike & Sally Janz

“ Whenever my husband and I walked into Nassau Bar and Grill we would look to see if Tommy was working. We loved to sit at the counter and chat with him watching whatever sport was on. He was a kind, caring man. Our deepest sympathies to the family.

“ Tommy was a long time friend of our daughter, Megan, and so became a cherished friend of ours. We have such fond memories of time together in our backyard and sitting at his bar talking about books and sports. He was a gentleman with a smile and such compassion for those he met. Whether we saw him last week or last year we felt as though no time had past. That’s what true friendship is all about. We were blessed to have shared in his life. He will be greatly missed but never forgotten. Ann and Pat Drake
