“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Thomas will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Thomas again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Thomas seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Uncle Tom was always quick with a smile, a laugh, and a joke. He had a warm heart, a spritely soul, and a delightfully devilish grin. He will be missed and remembered fondly... "A person who can bring the spirit of laughter into a room is indeed blessed." - Bennett Cerf

“ My condolences to Allison and family...and, of course, Tom's lovely dobies. The first time I met Tom...he was teasing Allison. When they came to train their doberman...I was always happy to see them. Tom always had a smile and some quick wit in store for us. Never in a sour mood...just enjoying life. Tom will be sadly missed by all.

“ When I was small Tom would sometimes tease me, argue with me, and we would often butt heads, with Tom always wining. As I grew older Tom became my mentor, my guidance counselor, and my boyhood protector from our neighborhood bullies. When it was time for me to leave home and take Marge as my wife. I needed to pick the Best Man for my Wedding. I didn't need to think twice. There was no better man then TOM ST. CLAIR. Tom was my BIG BROTHER, --- He will be deeply missed by Little Bro- Tim
