“ It was an honor to know Tim for over half of my life. I believe the people that come into our lives (whether they stay long or not) are meant to be there. Tim is the very definition of what a good soul and friend is and I'm so glad I was lucky enough to know him. One memory of him that makes me smile is when he wanted me to dye his hair. I worked at a beauty supply store and often did my hair, so I thought it would be no problem. I got the supplies and we set to work. Tim wanted his hair a deep amethyst color. I had to bleach his somewhat unruly hair, and after waiting the correct amount of time I checked it; and it wasn't lifting! I gave it a while longer and checked again. It was this funky burnished orange color and it wouldn't go any lighter. I was able to cover that up with the dye, but he was such a good sport. We were laughing more from that than all the crazy fumes from the bleach and dye. Tim always wanted to do silly, crazy things that resulted in all of us smiling and laughing. <3

“ Tim always had a smile on his face, and was so easily loveable! He had a great personality and was so in love with Lavonne and his girls, for it showed anytime he was around and in every picture captured of him. Tim, you are deeply missed and I look forward to seeing you again in heaven!! Love, Candy Kelley

“ Tim was one of the most humble and fun human being I have ever met. I considered him one of my very good friends. Even after I moved away from the east coast we still had our talks when I was worried and he would make sure that I knew that everything will be ok. That's one big thing I'll miss about my friend. He made sure everyone who he knew and those he didn't know that we're feeling ok. I'll miss you so much my friend.
