“ Tim
I will always cherish our days at St Agatha. You were truly a class act and a great motivator of young men. Thank you also for the honor of allowing me to coach your wonderful son David
Rest in peace my friend Looking forward to pacing the sidelines with you again some day

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Tim's passing. We grew up together playing every sport we could think of. Our summers together playing sandlot baseball every day are embedded deep in my memory. We had so many good times and laughs together. My prayers go out to Barb and the entire family. We lost and heaven gained a wonderful man.
