“ Tim's quick smile and welcoming hug always made a person feel like he was truly happy to see you at every function. Thru conversations, it was easy to see that he had a strong work ethic, and took pride in what he did, but one could always tell that his proudest accomplishment was his family. My favorite memories of him will always be of seeing him with his girls, especially on the dance floor. His love for each of them has always been clear to see. Lisa, the two of you have always had my admiration for creating such a strong, close and beautiful family. May those bonds see you through this painful loss. I keep each of you in thought and prayer. Tim left a mark on the memory of all who knew him, and he will be deeply missed. My sincere sympathies

“ I worked along side Tim for 12 years at the Our Lady of Good Council Fish Fry. It was like the movie " Same time Next Year". I only saw him for a few Fridays during lent. Each year we would catch-up about our lives, jobs, what was going on, and most importantly our families. This guy was special. No flash, no hype (except when we was sure to tell me his arms were bigger than mine). He was excited about his truck, his daughters, his whole family. He was kind and loving to the kids who ran the food, he was respectful when necessary, funny with caution, quiet with his generosity. He called me "brother". When he showed up last year "ill and thin", we knew the fight was a tough one. At the end of last years Fish Fry, with "goodbyes" and "see you next years" ..I hugged him , carefully. I looked into his eyes and we both knew it was possibly the last goodbye. There was a hint of a tear, but a certain joy that we were friends for a time, and shared in the belief that God had a hand in all of what we do, and we were in the midst of all the craziness the world has, blessed. I shall miss Tim, and his pat saying I heard for so many years..."Fried Lice" (not sure what that meant in a fish fry but hey we all said it), Fish Fry!!"(just to remind us where we were), "T mack" (the Macaroni and cheese) , and of course .."you need a beer?"

Peace my brother, may you see the face of God today...I am sure you can work the Fish Fry in heaven..

Peace to the family.

“ So sorry to hear the news of Tim's passing. My heart goes out to Lisa and all the family. I know Tim and Lisa from High School days in Livonia.

Tim's smiling face and that blonde hair made him a stand out - you both made a cute little couple.

Prayers are with your family during this difficult time.

*Sincerely,
