“ I am sorry that we were unable to be with your family for the services. My mother is unable to travel, and I didn't want to make the trip alone. Please know that we were all thinking of you. Your mom would be so proud of her family. It is comforting to know that she is with Tom once again, and that neither one of them are in pain anymore. All of our love to your family

“ *Val and family,
I'm sorry we cannot be with you today but my Mum has been ill on and off over the last few months and my brother is in town for some family togetherness, as i'm sure you would understand. Just know that we have kept you and your family in our thoughts and prayers. Sending our sympathy and love on this difficult day. We will get together soon and celebrate her life and raise a glass to her memory. Ann and Pat Drake*

“ Hurting for Melanie, Valerie, Tim, Jeff, and Harry following the loss of a mom so special. Hoping you can feel some consolation from those who cared as deeply for your mother as we did for your amazing father, and for the terrific married couple, parents, and friends, they were for all of us. So sorry not to be able to join you for the farewell. Please know that your mom's peace, and reunion with your marvelous dad, are offering inspiration and solace to those who were blessed by their lives. Your mom's strength, good cheer, and friendship were such eternal gifts, as they remain blessings from your dad. Please know we are with you in spirit and grief, and in confidence, today. Love to all the Joneses. Lynn Henning

“ Dear Jones family and relatives,

I am so sorry for your loss. All we can hope for is that she is in a better place and now spending her time with her beloved husband Tom and all those that departed before her. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. God has brought home another angel to watch over us all.

“ I met Mrs. Jones and her wonderful family over 40 years ago. For a long time, the Eckerts and the Joneses were like one big fun family! She was the littlest woman I ever met, but she had the biggest heart of all. I have so many wonderful memories of Mr. and Mrs. Jones, their children, and their little Chihuahua dog! My warmest and deepest sympathies to the Jones family - Valerie, Jeff, Timmy, Buster, and Melanie.

“ I met Tina over 30 years ago, through her daughter Valerie. Tina & Tommy treated me like one of their own, my second family. Tina was such a loving, caring, fun person to be around. She had such great love for her family, that was everything to Tina. Anytime Val & I would hang out with Tina, or Tina & Tommy, we always had a wonderful time. I've spent many holidays with the Jones, and will never forget, those special moments with them and the family. Tina, you will be dearly missed by so many! RIP
