“ Dear Family and Friends and Motocross Family of Todd Nesler, Bob, our Children and I, are so saddened by the shock of Todd's sudden passing from this life. I had spent many hours with him at the motocross tracks discussing his innovative, futuristic and successful invention. It was always a pleasure to share in Todd's interests, and to observe his extraordinary enthusiasim in the pursuit of "his dream". May Our God Of All Comfort bring Peace to our hurting souls, in the Blessed Assurance that God's Ways Are Higher than our ways....and His Thoughts Are Higher than our thoughts. “ Many fond memories of Todd and the Motocross racing days, still remember when he and Greg were on the 80's, 125's, and of course, Todd's Pro Days. I was fortunate to see him this spring, while doing yard work one afternoon, someone pulled up and asked "is there a motocross track around here". Looking in, I discovered Todd's big grin. God Speed Todd will miss you, Randy

“ Katelyn and family, I am so sorry about this incredible loss. I have some fond memories of your father when he used to come to our home for family events, which he always loved. He used to love to play with your cousins when they were little and he always enjoyed helping me with my Christmas parties. Recently when we have seen each other at your school events and dance recitals, we always talked about how very proud he was of you and how special you were to him. Hold on to those thoughts honey to help you get through this sad time. Love, Aunt Ruth

“ Todd was a friend who I met online gaming. I will miss his nightly humor and sportsmanship. I have a daughter about the same age as his and we talked alot about the girls. He was so proud of her. He will be missed by so many people, even people who never got the chance to meet him. The Nesler family should be proud that this man touched so many lives. The Hovencamp Family

“ I forgot to add one other great memory..It was after Uncle Ken's (Todd's grandfather's) funeral and all our cars were stuck in mud at Aunt Louises house.....Todd had to have his pulled out with a tractor but I remember driving mom and dad's car and we got stuck in the driveway in mud and I worked and worked till I finally got the car free from the mud..Todd came running over and said "I WILL NEVER EVER SAY ANYTHING AGAIN ABOUT BAD WOMEN DRIVERS" because you got the car out and I have to have mine pulled out.....we were really laughing about that..

“ Dear Katelyn: Amy and I want you to know what a great father you have. During the Christmas holidays in 2007, my husband was very ill and Amy and I ventured out in a really bad snow storm and got really stuck in the snow up by your Dad's home. Todd came out and took two hours getting us out of that mess and then drove my car up to Hunter so I would be safe and then he had to walk home in that storm...We laughed and told him ..."He was our New Best Friend" ...in fact we baked him cookies and Amy ran with you and your Dad during that time. Your Dad will always be Our Hero in our days of sadness. Fondly, Barb Kilbourn and Amy O'Connor

“ I remember when I worked for the Congresswoman in Ypsilanti and Todd would come to the office and we would go to lunch ..no one would believe he was my cousin they thought that I was hiding a "secret boyfriend" We had some great talks Todd and you were a great father and I know how much you adored Katelyn and so proud of her....I remember how proud you were when she painted that picture for your Grandma at her surprise b'day party... May you rest in peace Todd..

“ I will always remember the discussions Todd and I had about raising our daughters. Todd blew me away with how much he adored Katelyn, and how committed he was to helping her become a great person. I'll also always remember the meals we shared when we were out visiting at that restaurant with the model train running around the ceiling - it was so neat to see how excited Greg and Todd were to see each other again. Family was so important to Todd. I really wish that we'd been able to get out to Michigan more often, and I also wish that we'd have been able to make our plans for a trip for Todd and Katelyn to come visit us in California a reality. May you rest in peace, Todd. You definitely deserve it.
