“ Tommy and his family have been our next door neighbors for 39 years! Best people ever. We did not coffee and tea together however there was nothing we could not ask for. Tommy was the kindest, most soft spoken man but would offer his help in any circumstance. This past year has been hard on the family but we could see signs of how hard it was for Tommy too. One day as Thelma was doing yard work in the heat; Tommy following around behind her. Thelma sat to rest and grab a drink of water. Tommy walked around behind her and began to massage her shoulders. My heart broke for both of them at that moment. It is so hard to understand why life has to be so painful. Tommy was a proud man and loved each and every one of his family. If he had a favorite he surely never showed it. Never heard him say a harsh word or display any form of negativity. We will miss Tommy terribly and continue to be the best neighbor for Thelma and her family. Rest In Peace Tommy. Our prayers and deepest sorrow for Thelma, Stephany, Lois, Chad and Tim and the grandchildren. 🙏🙏🙏
