“ I miss you, mom. It still doesn't feel real. The world doesn't make sense without you. I don't know how to function the right way. You're not supposed to be gone. I don't know what to do without you.

“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com
Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ Joe, Rachel, David, Joe; It's so sad...my condolences to you. I'm deeply sorry she is gone from us; I find strength knowing that our last conversation ended with an exchange of "I love you". Please find comfort knowing she is pain free and happier than she has ever been surrounded by love for all eternity. Love you all. Until we meet again Tresia, I'll miss you.

“ Tresia;
I love you with all my heart and soul; True love never dies because it comes from our eternal father who is the source of all love. We withstood the test of time; your were my wife almost 25 years. Looking back I amazed you hung in there. I'm so glad you did. I will miss you; till we meet again....

I am so heartbroken I just can not believe you are gone. I will miss you dearly, our long conversations and games we played together. I always could count on you and Joe. I do take comfort that one day we will meet again, knowing that you got saved and knew Jesus as your Saviour. So one day we will meet again. My heart goes out to your family. I miss you. I love you Linda West Lafleur
