“ Susan, Marie and family,
I was so very sad to learn only today of Troy's passing my time with him and all your family is very special to me. Wonderful memories and great times were everyday events at the Fant household.. Your dad always had a half smile on his face and always had at least one joke for me that probably wouldn't get told in church. He was a self made / self reliant man, who always seemed to dote on you, and treat your mom like a queen.
I still have the SK tools and toolbox he got me from C&B, I'll smile and think of him each time I use them.
I never did learn to play bridge.
Denny

Rich and I enjoyed talking with your Dad and listening to all his stories. He especially liked the jokes Rich told him. It was a pleasure to have him in our lives.
