“ Is Heaven full?

Last week God called one of his Angels 🙏 home. I only had a short time to know Troy but the memories will be cherished for a life time. Whether BBQ at the house with her family or the times she spent at our home. I believe one Angel at a time in God's kingdom. I pray for the time that we are reunited. Until then sweet peace dear Sister. To her amazing family you are also shepherds of God and will always keep her memory alive.

“ Dear precious sister, Troy. My heart aches knowing we can never hear you laugh, see your smile or just spend time with you. The memories we share are countless. You were one of us! If we went to the beach, you went to the beach if we went on a walk, you went on the walk. You were always by our side. I love you so much and I'm so grateful to have been a part of your life.

I can see the angels smiling as you join them. No more pain, no more heartache... No sickness... Absolutely nothing negative, Troy, heaven certainly gained a beautiful angel

Until we meet again I love you yesterday today and forever.

Love, your sis, Pam.

“ My sweet Aunt Troy, or Aunt Fooie as I used to call you. You always lit up the room with your smile and contagious laugh. I'll always remember being so small and sitting on your tray. I will always treasure the memories we were able to make. We shared lots of laughs and love. Love you always.

“ My beautiful sister, Troy. Thank you for your love, kindness, sense of humor, strength and courage. You were the best older sister. Your smile and personality always caught the attention of all the boys. You were such a flirt. - without any effort:) You are already missed; however you are free of the body that was not able to do what you wanted it to do. I am certain heaven is a happier place because you are there. I love you beyond eternity. Jenny
