“ Val, my brother, my friend. I will miss you. Your Brother John We are very sad to have lost a brother and brother-in-law with whom we shared so many wonderful moments. Having known you for so long, your loss creates a void that simply cannot be filled. Our only hope is that the memories of our times together allow us to celebrate your life. As we recall the wine and sausage making, dinners at Brothers Restaurant, our families living close together on Anthony and Kendall Streets, the vacations our families shared, and playing cards, we are reminded of how much of an impact you had on our famiy. We will miss you Val. John and Gerri Fusco

“ Few men go through life as admired, respected and loved as my Uncle Val. Words can not express the sadness so many feel from the loss of this wonderful man. Knowing him makes me want to be a better person. Until we see eachother again in paradise, give Patti and Tony a hug for me.

“ He was a very special man. Upon meeting Val, you would instantly like and respect him. Words like integrity, respect, loyal, hardworking, class are used in times like this. These words represent the solid foundation of this man's life. Simply put, it was the way he lived his life. Val was a sweet, humble, soft spoken man. But when he spoke, you would listen. He possessed a special quality that made you want to be a better person. His passing has left a huge hole in our hearts and in the world. This emptiness will be felt by many. Men like Val, don't come by very often.

“ We are so saddened to hear of Val's death. He was my closest & very best friend while growing up on Cecil St. in Detroit. Val also did us the great honor of serving as an usher at our wedding. Although we lost touch with him in adulthood and are separated by thousands of miles, we remember him always as a warm, sweet, gentleman and as best friend. Our deepest condolences to his family for their great loss.

“ It was the greatest honor and privilege to be Val's older brother. He always had my back. "When you were born you cried - he lived a life that when he died, people cried."
