“ *Hello to all the Grubbs family. My mother, Betty Sipes, sent me the obituary from the newspaper. I have been away from Michigan for so many years, however, my childhood and my friend Vaughn from my childhood are in the forefront of my fond memories. I remember hanging out with Vaughn and laughing. Then there was the day my dad tried to teach us how to waltz in my living room and we were about 11 or 12 and we were sooo embarrassed when we had to actually touch each others shoulders. We had many fine times at the park across from your house and just playing. As teens, I remember talking to Vaughn about the hard times of being a teen and all the problems life presented. He was a good listener and we had a truthful friendship. I am truly sorry for the early passing of Vaughn. I will pray for your strength in coping with your loss and pray for the universal spirit to hold him in pure love. I miss you all.
Love, Debbie*

“ I knew Vaughn back in the late 1960?s and early 1970?s. I remember Vaughn as a kind, gentle, considerate and happy person who by his example taught me to accept myself for who I am for which I have been forever grateful to Vaughn. Even at a young age, Vaughn was a wise and special person who I will never forget.
