

Vickie Jane Wolfe

November 10, 1947 - February 19, 2023

Wolfe, Vickie Jane, February 19, 2023, aged 75 of Plymouth, Michigan. Loving wife of 56 years to Charlie Wolfe, devoted mother of Rebecca (Corry) Wolfe and David (Jessica) Wolfe. Proud grandmother of Jack Maskey and Charlotte Gray. Dear sister of Linda Giglio (deceased), Jerry Hagan and Peter Hagan (deceased). Though she worked for years in accounting and as an office manager, Vickie's real passions were spending time with her family & friends, finding bargains at garage sales and being a Master Gardener. Vickie was always the warmest, kindest person in any room with her big smile and infectious laugh. Despite being so bright and beautiful, Vickie was maddeningly, charmingly humble and self-deprecating. She was the embodiment of "love in action", making sure that everyone she loved felt seen and special. If you were in Vickie's orbit, you always knew exactly how she felt about you because she wore her heart on her sleeve in a beautiful way. Even as her health declined, she could still maintain her humor, her bright loving spirit and her endless affection for her Charlie. Her legacy will be celebrated at a private memorial at a later date. In lieu of flowers, please consider a memorial contribution to The Alzheimer's Association at www.alz.org. “ Oh so many wonderful memories of our dear neighbor, from Ms. Vickie's contagious laughter, her perfectly 'southern Ohio' accent, her kind heart to her famous potato salad. I spent many a night at the Wolfe house, learning the basics of a perfectly outrageous patio warming party. So many wonderful memories, my heart goes out to you Becky, David, & Charlie as you navigate forward. Know the Ms. Vickie we all remember is alive and well and keeping watch over you all.

“ The first time I met Charlie and Vickie I was greeted in two very different ways.

One greeting was cautious, full of uncertainty and mistrust. I would describe it as physically growling and gnashing of teeth. And NO, I am not referring to Charlie. The tense standoff was with the family dog “Odie”. If you know you know.

The other memorable greeting was from Vickie.

Her infectious radiant smile pulled me into her arms for warm welcoming hug and an accepting kiss. Vickie made me immediately feel part of her family as she opened up her home and heart to me. And whether you know her as Vickie, Vickie Jane, Mammaw or Mom you always felt her loving spirit as she so unselfishly offered her undivided attention. Over the years I came to know Vickie to be Kind, Strong, Forgiving, Thoughtful, Respectful, Flirty , Cute , Funny and warm. But most of all I will cherish how she Loved. A wreckless type of Love that was undeniable and true.

My “Michigan mom” will live in my heart forever. Always reminding me how to truly love others.

*I can say before my Father I am blessed to have had you in my life. You made us all better people. I love you Mammaw. Sweet dreams.

“ Vickie Jane was the much-loved mother of my sweet friend Rebecca. I was blessed to know Vickie, she had a way of meeting you and making you feel like she has known you forever. She was so funny and kind. Vickie’s smile would light up every room. My favorite memory of her and Charlie is from the day of the big reveal of their new condo. They were both so grateful and so very happy to move into such a beautiful home. They appreciated every little thing about it and recognized all the hard work in renovations and decorating Corry and Rebecca did for them. It was a beautiful day with many laughs. I got to witness firsthand the love Vickie and Charlie have for each other; the way he cared for her is true love. I loved hearing the stories of how they met and fell in love and a lot of funny family stories. Charlie and Rebecca were amazing caregivers to Vickie. Vickie was loved by many. Words cannot convey the heartfelt sympathy for your loss.

“ Ohhhh Ms Vickie. What a Sweet, Genuine, Beautiful Soul You Are! You were so funny and cute. I found one of my purpose when I met you and Charlie for the 1st just a year ago becoming your caregiver. I utterly enjoyed our 4 hour conversations 2twice a week. You made me giggle every time you'd repeat after Steve Harvey saying “A Brand New Cah” or singing the theme song to Frankie and Grace. That was our show to watch when Charlie left to go on errands. I haven't watched the show since you moved away. I can't. It's not the same. You and Charlie took me back to a time that no longer exist. When people were genuinely WELCOMING , HONEST and TRUE. That's why I had to have you meet my 3 kids. I wanted them to know there's REALLY GOOD WARM AND GENUINE PEOPLE still out here. You remind me of my grandparents energy. I'd Love Coming to Your Home. It was indeed a Gift. I Thank God for the Gift of Meeting You Vickie ❤️🙏

What a dear sweet friend my Vickie was, we were friends for 42 years. She was like a sister to me. We would go on shopping sprees to whatever Macys now is and Parisians. Boy did we get the bargains, put them in the trunk so Don and Charlie wouldn't find out. Painting a bowling ball out in the yard pink. This was for my Mary Kay debut as sales director. I gave this to Don as a gift 🧡. We had met in the at the GP Woods Bowling Alley. Vickie became one of my beauty consultant, new to Michigan. She got a true friend for life. I will miss my buddy terribly, but she will be in my heart 💜. Rest in peace my dear sweet Vickie, you were the best 🧡💜🙏

“ We all remember Aunt Vickie's big laugh and kind heart! It's so fun to see how many people were touched by her infectious joy of life. When I was around 14 years old my cousin Robin got married. I rode to the reception in the car with Aunt Vickie, Uncle Charlie, and David. We were walking to the hotel and Vickie and Charlie were in front of me and they held hands. They must have been married at least 25 years by that time. I hadn't seen married couples showing that kind of tender affection for each other. It struck me profoundly, as an impressionable teenager, how special their relationship was. On that same occasion, Aunt Vickie tried to make David cover a pimple with makeup!

“ Both my earliest and most recent memories of Aunt Vickie are of her big laugh, big hugs, and big smile. Thanksgiving festivities didn't start until Aunt Vickie and crew arrived - including her pampered pups! She brought the party, life and laughter. Growing up in the south, I LOVED her accent, and anyone with a similar accent reminds me of Aunt Vickie. I will miss her; my love and sympathy go out to Uncle Charlie, Becky, David and their loved ones. - Kim (Hagan) Johnson

“ I am so sorry Vickie has passed . She was the mother of my dear friend Rebecca. I had the pleasure of knowing her throughout my adulthood and know how much she loved her family, you could feel it. She was a sweet woman with plenty of sass. When you spent time with her, she gave true undivided attention and set a great example of how to listen. I can hear her voice and see her mannerisms as I write this.

She brought brightness to the days we shared and will continue to brighten days as we remember her. Vickie, you will be truly missed.

“ Aunt Vickie was the funniest and sweetest lady! She welcomed me into the family with open arms! I will never forget meeting her for the first time and she gave me the biggest hug, and being the only girlfriend of PJ's she had ever met!

“ Uncle Charlie, Becky and Dave, I am truly sorry for your loss. Aunt Vickie was the life of the party. I loved spending time with her as she always was laughing and making others feel happy. I am so grateful for the time we spent together in December. Much love to all.

From the Wild Bunch on Huntington Blvd. From the softball league games to the backyard fireworks displays, a lot of good memories. Saw the kids grow up with all the others. Then you left us. never to be the same. Say "Hi" to Dianna and Paul up in Heaven.
