“ I do not know if Vicki was still married to Dave Williams, but when I saw this e-mail about her passing it made me very sad. I remember the days of Fordson Band 1964-1966. Vicki was always so much fun and one of the people that you remember. You cannot say that about everyone.

“ *Dearest Vicki,
May the road rise to meet you
May the wind be always at your back
May the sun shine warm upon your face
May the rains fall softly upon your fields
And until we meet again
May god hold you in the palm of his hand.*

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Victoria will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Victoria again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ Vicki was not only my sister, but also my friend. She was always encouraging me to not give up on life and people. We had numerous talks about religion and how much peace the church gave her. I don't know how I will go on without her. She was always there when I needed help and she helped without even being asked. I never ever heard her complain about any of her health problems, pains or any negative comments about anyone or anything. She was always worrying about everyone else. She was a kind, loving, tender hearted and unselfish woman. Never thinking of herself. I know she had some of the best friends anyone could ask for and I Thank You All. She visited me on most Sundays after Church and Proudly enjoyed showing me new pictures of her family and the apple of her eye Emmersyn. I will forever cherish our last conversation on May 7th and there are no words that can explain how very much I Loved Her.

“ Dear Tiffany and Ashley, Losing Vicki has been a huge blow. She was the best friend anyone could ever ask for. Her pride and joy were you two girls, and more recently, Emmersyn. You can take comfort in knowing how much happiness and love you all brought into her life. I have never met anyone more selfless and charitable than Vicki, nor anyone who could face difficulties with such grace and amazing cheerfulness. When most of us would be wallowing in self pity, she would rise up to meet the next challenge with a smile on her face. She will always be a role model for me, showing me the true spirit of faith, generosity, forgiveness, compassion for others, and positive thinking. At the same time, Vicki was so much fun to be with....ever the nut and sly jokester. I will miss her so much! We are all so very lucky and honored to have been part of her life. If only it had been longer! I'm adding a photo of Vicki laughing at Julie's wedding. It is so illustrative of her wonderful personality. Much love,
Jill
