“ God bless you all at this special time - knowing your wonderful Mother is with the Lord she loved and served here, and yet a big part of your heart seems to have gone with her. Just remember what was the best thing about her, and resolve to put that back into the world through your own life! Love and prayers!

“ Dear Marylou and family,
How blessed you all were to have had your mother with you for so long. Now at the end of her faithful life, she resides in a wonderful place where she will meet you at the gate one day. Thank you, Jesus, for that reality that gives peace! Love and Prayers, Steve and Char

“ I remember when meeting Mrs. Napolitano for the first time, when Mark and Mary Anne were engaged, I thought she was a lovely, gentle and kind woman. She was always very thoughtful and gracious with me when I would see her again at Mark and Mary Anne's family occasions. I am fortunate to have known her and her beautiful family.
