“ I was saddened to hear of the death of our "gentle giant" classmate from the St. Gregory class of 1955. Vince was a friend to everyone and I never heard anyone say a negative word about him. Following are my comments from our 50th year high school reunion memories booklet. "Vincent Manderachia was one great guy whose last name I could never spell, but who I remember well with friendship. I was glad that he never got mad at me, because I surely would have been flattened." But I think he never got mad at anybody. Please accept my condolences on his passing. Tom Kosco

“ *I went to school with Vince for many years and he was always respectful, and got along well with everyone. He and his wife always came to the reunions, but he did not make it to the last one. He was a joy to be around.

“ *Dear Neighbor,
The Mike Stacey Family send condolences to all you knew and loved.
Rejoice in knowing that Marjorie and Vince are together once again.
When we've seen a bright red cardinal out our window on Christmas Day, we fondly remember Marjorie and the memories of Vince playing Santa to our kids, too.
