“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Vincent will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Vincent again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Vincent seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Sorry to here about your Dad. He was very good friend of my Dad Kenneth Schoenfeldt. They had lots of golfing stories to tell. My mothers name was also Ruth like your Mothers. My Dad always called her Ruthie. I have many fond memories or them both. My best memory is how all of you loved your parents and took such good care of them. That is really a testimonial in this day and age.
