“ I am not quite sure how to start this. So I will just put it right there. My Grandma is gone but will never be forgotten. Not only by me but by everyone that knew her. I cannot even put into words what I learned from her. She taught me so many values that will stay with me for the rest of my life. When I was growing up I would bring new friends over to meet her. They always fell in love with her. If ever I needed someone to talk to she was there. A quiet ear. I can count on one hand the times I heard her say something bad about someone. She cared more about others than herself. I cannot say enough about my Grandma. If there was anyone in this world that I could have wished to be around forever, she was that person. She will and will forever be sorely missed. I love you Grams.

“ The Jacobs family is one of the most admirable that we have ever come across. It is a rarity that you come across such treasures in life. Your grandma was a true gem. Our prayers, thoughts and concerns are with all if you...
