“ Dear family members sorry to hear about Virginia. I know that you will keep those fond memories of her in forefront. We know it's not easy when we lose someone we truly love. But please draw comfort in knowing that the Almighty has promised to do something big for us. Notice Isaiah 25:8 "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Soverign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces..." Please draw comfort in knowing that he is aware of our pain here on earth, and in the near future he's going to make the needed changes to turn our beautiful earth back into paradisiac conditions free from pain, suffering and death.

“ Dear Charlesworth Family, please take comfort in the beautiful promise that the Bible holds out where it says, "And He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore, the former things have past away." (Rev.21:4) For more info on the hope for our dear loved ones please visit www.watchtower.org

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Virginia will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Virginia again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Virginia seemed like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)
