“ Great memories of hanging out at the house for the holidays back in the 90's and eating her amazing pot roast and homemade mashed potatoes and being in a food coma sprawled out on the floor in the familyroom with Jeff. Lol Nobody could cook like grandma Fehlig! She was always so kind and welcoming to me. Happy that she is at peace and reunited with grandpa Fehlig now. Sending the Fehlig/Tome family my thoughts, prayers and love! 💕💕💕💕💕

“ Karen and I send our sympathy to the family. We knew Bill and Virginia through the Plymouth Lions Club. She was a sweet and gracious lady and always with a smile. We will not be able to attend the services, but, will be in our prayers. We have since moved back to Decatur, Illinois, but have many great memories of our Plymouth days and with the Plymouth Lions Club.

“ Wonderful memories of being at the Fehlig home on Saturday nights listening to my dad and Virginia play music. She was always so welcoming and sweet. She told me how much she enjoyed those times at her 100th birthday party. Great lady, great family., great life. Blessings and peace Dave and Patty. Love, Jill Richter-Vernal
