“ This had got to be the most diffucult time of your life and while you believe you won't get pass it the good lord has other plans for you to carry on and in time you will. May he come into your hearts so you know and can feel his healing powers. I am so sorry I could not be there if for nothing more than to support you all. Love you all.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Virginia will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Virginia again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ Im so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. I too have lost loved ones in death. My greatest comfort has come from God's word the Bible. God promises soon: "he will actually swallow up death forever." (Isaiah 25:8) Just imagine how wonderful life will be when we are reunited with our loved ones right here on a paradise earth.-Psalms 37:10,11,29

“ To the family of Virginia Ruth Seigneurie, I'm truly sorry to hear about the lost of your loved one. Death is such a enemy of mankind and it is something of that we will never accept as normal because death its self is abnormal. How happy it is too know that one of the promises in the bible states that their will be a return to life of all those in the grave this is found in the bible in the book of John 5;28,29. i hope that this scripture will bring you as much comfort as it has too me in the lost of my loved ones.May the family be reassured that when this earth as been changed into a pardise all families will be reunited to enjoy the blessings described in the bible at Psalms 37;10,11.
