“ In this life we only have a little time. God provides a way to understand what is important and the Holy Spirit reveals that way. Tommy knew the way!... Most people feather their own beds but Tommy feathered the beds of others.... That's Love!... God's Love. Our eternity begins when we discover the truth...and at that time God changes our priorities. Tommy's life was changed before I knew him, I could see that by his love for others. For Jerry and Audrey and many others. Tom was the person we called when we needed help and he never hesitated. God said to those who discovered the truth "this day you shall be with me in paradise" So I say REJOICE! Walter's work is done here! He proceeds us in the presence of the Lord but he leaves us with his priorities... We shall not linger here long.... seek the truth,... love others as yourself,... trust in the Lord Jesus Christ and.... this life will be respected and live beyond the grave. Praise God.

“ LaVerne, I think I'll miss hearing "ol Brown Eye" the most but there is certainly much I will miss. The jokes and laughter, the willingness to help in any way, the good ole Southern boy manners, helping to look for the 'giddygapper', the stand in Dad after I lost mine, the unconditional love he shared with all of us, the way he would turn the other cheek. He sowed love all around him and he reaped much love back. Don't hesitate to wrap that love around you in your darkest moments. We are here to help love you too as you two were like two peas in a pod. Serving and loving as I can only imagine Jesus did. You've both learned your Sunday School lessons well! God be with you, let Him give you the strength you need to face each day until we all meet again at His feet. We love you. The Jackson's: Paul & Shari, Erin, Kari, Kate, Jeff & Ryan

“ Dear LaVerne, I pray that God will bless you and your family with peace and His healing grace. Tommy was a blessing to us all and I am very thankful that I had the chance to meet him. I also pray for his good friends and the Valui family. I believe that the love that your husband has for his fellow man, and especially for you, will never cease. It is a gift from him that will go on forever.

“ Dear LaVerne and Family: I was so shocked to hear about Tom and I am so sorry for your loss. What a wonderful person he was. Even though I only knew him for a little while, he was so easy to enjoy being around. I will definitely miss his visits as he always had something nice to say and was always ready to lend a hand. From the first time I met you both, he made me feel at home and I never felt like a stranger in his presence. I love you both and pray that God will comfort you in this difficult time. My thoughts and prayers are with you. May God be with you as surely as Tom is with Jesus.
