“ I informed my brother this evening of Mr. Hembree's passing, Mrs. Hembree. He recalled being the altar boy at your wedding, and of all the teachers I ran into at Mrs. Koss's funeral, you were the only one who asked about him. All the rest forgot about him. Through me, he sends his heartfelt sympathies, and you and your family are in his prayers always. Steve Frayer (for Michael Frayer)

“ My Uncle Jr, Will live on in my heart. I will always remember the good times we had and how much I always enjoyed not only his visits to TN but his phone calls. He will be missed. Very few people had the influence that he had on me, and I am so thankful that I knew him as a kind and thoughtful man who never forgot where he came from or how he got where he was. My heart goes out to Genny, Scott and Cindy. May God bless you each, and give you strength. Love, Beverly
