“ My Dearest Wayne Michael, It has been almost 10 months since you have left us, and I am still trying to grasp this reality. I miss you and think about you everyday. My love for you will never die. I do need to move on though. I don't know how else to get the closure that I need except to leave this message. You were an amazing man, who loved me the only way you could. We shared so many special times that I will never forget. You will always have a piece of my heart. Amye and Drew miss you too. You were such a huge part of our lives. It's been very hard on Amye Lou. She loved you so much. Thank you for loving me. I will always be your Sweet Pea. Good Bye Wayne Michael. I'll love you forever and ever..

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Wayne will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Wayne again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Wayne seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ In times like this we want to look to our Master of faith Jesus for he say at Mathew 11:28 come all you are loaded down and i will give you refreshment. In the word the Bible we are told that the dead are conscious of nothing Ecclesiates 9:5. Jehovah almighty God calls the dead, only sleeping in death because he promises that he will swallow up death and all in the memorial tumb will come out, Isaah 24:8 and John 5:28. We have hope Wayne will come out and reunited with family. What a marvelous event to await for.

“ I got to know you as "Little Wayne" when you were only twelve. Although I didn't tell you, I experienced empathy during your rough times and great joy when hearing about the good things in your life. I'm sure you're in 'the better place' now, with those who have missed you and I know you're happier knowing the ones (still here) who love you and miss you so much, will join you in due time. Love, Brenda

“ Wayne my buddy, you were like my little brother. I knew you long before I ever knew you even had a sister. We had a lot of good times before I was in your family and some after I was out of your family, and we never let that stop us because we were and always will be family. You had a heart of gold that a lot of people didn't no and I truly will miss you. Peace be with you my little bro.

“ Wayne Michael, We were children, you, my sister Virginia and I, playing in a small blow up pool on the side the the home where we lived. You must have been about two years old and we fondly called you Little Wayne, then. It was a hot summer day and we had a bucket filled to the brim with water from the garden hose that was continuously running. Your choice of fun was not the pool but the bucket because you chose to sit and play in it, not the pool. You were such a beautiful little boy of sandy hair and mischievous blue eyes. Your laughter and smiles echo forever in my heart.
