“ Dear Cheryl, I'm so sorry to hear about the passing of Wayne. I grew up on Marlowe between Mackenzie and Belton, and went to Parkman Elementary, and Mackenzie High School. My closest friends were Carl Rinna and Al Vellucci, whom I still see and hangout with regularly. I can remember walking home from school holding your hand, so we must have been sweethearts for a couple of minutes....:-) Perhaps you remember me, perhaps not, but I just wanted to express my condolences to you and your family. Take care. God Bless. Jimmy Fiorenzi

“ Ken and I are in Colorado visiting Keith and his family but we would like you to know how very sorry we are to hear about Wayne and we wish we could be there in person. Wayne will be missed by many of us who've shared lots of wonderful, exciting, fun times with each other and our kids. Please know you are in our thoughts and prayers and we will see you when we return to Mlichigan. Love you.

“ Mrs. T, I'll never forget your husband for his fun loving spirit and his always lively "Hello there Mr. K." greetings to me. :) I loved calling him Mr. T ever since "Rocky's" boxing match with Mr. T. and "The A Teams" Mr. T. (Dana probably knows what I'm talking about on those movies and shows. :) I will miss him. I know you had some tough times but I hope you will remember all the good times you've all had and be grateful for the wonderful family you 2 brought up together. His spirit will remain!
