“ Deepest Sympathy to the Family of Wendy Rebecca Mitchell. I'm truly sorry for your loss. Please take comfort in these words of God at (Isaiah 25:8) reads: "He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces. The reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, For Jehovah himself has spoken it.

“ Dear Patricia and Mitchell family, I was very saddened to hear about your daughter's passing. She was someone that really lived every day to the fullest. While I know that words are only a small gesture of support, I want you to know that her spirit has touched many people's lives as it has mine. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. Rest in Peace my dear friend, I know you are in heaven. Dusko

“ So sad to hear about Wendy's passing. She was always such a great friend to me in middle school. I always looked up to her and felt so lucky to call her my friend. I remember my last Halloween in Allen Park - right after I moved away - we got together and went out trick or treating with our closest friends - I'll never forget that great night! I still have the pictures to take me back to those times. Rest In Peace my friend! You will be missed by many, but never forgotten!

“ Wendy sent me a sweet message on Facebook last January with the subject line: "Hi, old friend!" She wanted to share with me a memory of us watching The Wizard of Oz in my basement back in middle school. Wendy and I were good friends for years. We played tennis. We were flag twirlers. I so wish she had attended our reunion. She was someone I was eager to see after so many years. I keep thinking of a picture of her I have in 7th or 8th grade with a cake, celebrating Simon Le Bon's birthday. How she loved Duran Duran and English bands. I remember her lovely mother's British accent. I've been deeply saddened this week hearing the news. Wendy, you will be missed. Peace to you and your family.

“ I was friends with Wendy in High School and remember vividly how genuine, caring, and true-to-self she was. I always had deep respect for her in the fact that she was not afraid to be herself and speak her mind regardless of the situation -- and she did it with such flair, good grace, and humility that it was hard not to envy her perspective on life. I haven't spoken to her since high school, but will always remember her as a beautiful soul and as a measure for my own life when it comes down to the things that truly matter. I extend my deepest sympathies to her family.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about the lost of a loved one. Coping with death definitely has its challenges. What helps me is reading and meditating on John 5:28,29 which stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." In the near future you will be able to see Wendy again. I hope these word provided some comfort.

“ I was saddened to hear a few years ago of Wendy's struggle with MS, and now to find out she has passed on. Although we didn't keep in touch after high school, I'll always remember the sympathy card she sent me after my father passed away, which was many years after high school. She was a genuine, kind-hearted person.
