“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Wesley will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Wesley again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Wesley. I hope you are doing ok, considering. I never met Wesley, but I know he was your true love. I pray that God will be with you and help to comfort you, now and always. If you want to talk, just call. The number is the same. Love, Deana

“ Dear Edie and Savannah, We are so sorry to be writing you under these circumstances. We were so saddened to hear of the loss of your loving husband Wesley. Cherish the time you have together and love each other with the same love that Wesley had for all of you. He'd want that! May your heart and soul find peace and comfort during this time. We will always cherish the great happy memories of endless laughs we all shared back many summers ago with you and Wesley during our bonfire evenings we all shared together. Please know if you need anything at all? We are here for you. With sincere sympathy. Cathy & Jeff Lindey
