“ I only met Whitney a few times that I remember. But, I have significant memories of his wife, the former Marilyn Slater. Marilyn and I first met after my birth in 1942 -- she was my baby sitter! I have a picture of both of them from 1943 with Marilyn holding me. The three of us are on the same bed in which I was born; I was born in my parent's apartment on Vernor Highway in Detroit, just a couple miles away from Briggs Stadium where the Detroit Tigers once played baseball. Whitney was a son of the Rev. Merlin Stevens at Campbell Avenue Methodist Church (Detroit) who baptized me. I am now 80 years old, and Marilyn is 96. (Rev. Samuel Laswell, 30 Nov. 2022)
