“ Bill was truly one of the good guys at Ford. I worked with Bill numerous times to process the certification paperwork for some of our powertrain running changes. I always felt he had my back as he challenged me to clarify our wording. His infectious smile always serve to de-escalate the tension and made the task a pleasure to work with him. I'm very sorry to learn of his Alzheimer's struggles and passing. My deepest sympathy goes out to his family!

“ I Donna & Family. My deepest sympathy to each and all of you. Many memories of Uncle Bill, but I remember one visit when he insisted on watching Pretty Women. ( I liked that movie and encouraged him to hurry and get in on the TV. All kidding aside, I would like to Donate !$100.00 to the Michigan Alzheimer Assoc. in memory of Bill. We must find a cure for this terrible disease which attacks patient & caregiver as well. GOD LESS all of you! Glenn Neuenschwander

“ Father “Uncle Bill” Christmas. Many happy memories of Santa Claus bringing gifts to the kids that’s after the journey of surviving getting into the house with all the stuffing and costume attached while trying to see thru fogged up glasses! 😭. God be with Bill as he is now “shaking hands” with the angels.

“ On behalf of our family, we send you sincere condolences. “Uncle” Bill was a wonderful soul. I was always intrigued by his political talks.

“ Uncle Bill will be missed. So many happy memories. Such a great smile! Many Christmas Eve celebrations throughout the years shared with the whole family. Grateful that Uncle Bill took the photos and films to reflect on in future years.
