“ In the very short time I've known Bill, it was like we were dear friends. He's that kind of guy. I good hearted man who is probably finding things that need to be done in heaven, " Hey Jesus, I'm gonna fix that gate over there and let me know what else I can do after that..." Great man. Great wife. Lauralyn is a perfect soul mate, you 2 were meant to be. Cherish the memories ♡♡♡

I grew up down the street from Bill in Inkster, and he hung around my cousin Billy Deghetto, they both had motorcycles pretty sure not positive but I think Honda 350's and they would strap their fishing poles to their bikes and would go fishing , I saw that and thought that was the coolest thing, another time we were playing baseball in the street and being a few years younger than the rest they told me I could be catcher so they put me like 20 feet behind the batter not to get hurt, well after a few pitches and feeling pretty good bout playing with the older guys I took a line drive foul ball of the face and started crying, Bill ran over looked at my face and said I was ok and the only thing wrong was I had peanut butter in my ear! Everyone laughed including me , I remember him always being very nice to me, ran into him few times over the years and would have a good talk, my sincere condolences to his family and friends. Bill was a great neighbor and friend. He was always there if I needed him and when he and Lauralyn moved it was a sad day for me. My deepest condolences to his family.

I have a lot of fun memories of my Uncle Bill...boating on Lake Charlevoix, camping out on the island of Lake Sherwood, and many hilarious Christmas Eve's with the McMahon side of the family. Plus he was my Godfather. I pray that he is at peace, and I know he will be remembered and missed.
