“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. William will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see William again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ Dear Miller family you have my deepest sympathy. Although I'm not familiar with the family, I still wanted to share a comforting thought with you from God's word the Bible. The thought is of the resurrection hope. Jesus has the power to raise those up from the dead as he has done in the past. (Mark 5 41,42; John 11: 43,44) Rest assure that if we are faithful to God, and Christ then we will benefit from that promise. If you would like to know more go to jw.org.com official website.

“ Charlene, so very sorry to hear about the passing of Bill. He was such a patient and good man. He taught so many of us accounting principles, taxes, and just good business sense. He respected everyone and, consequently, was loved and admired by his co-workers.

“ Oh Char, I am so very sad to learn of Bill's passing.. He was such a good guy. I especially will always remember working with him each year to select someone for "The Plymouth Hall of Fame". He was our leader and was so patient with all our questions. I was just asking about you two on Friday at the ribbon cutting for the new Popcorn Wagon. Sending my love and sincere sympathy. XOX,
Fran

“ I've known Bill for over fifty years. What a intellectual person he was. He gave me alot of advice, taught me how to repair things, how to find our way out of snowmobile trails by sight & compass & he had alot of patience. We've shared many good times & sad times. We had alot of fun going up-north with our families. Always took time to play cards with the kids. Well, my "Friend" my heart aches, but I'll always have all those wonderful memories that will make me smile.
