“ I was just looking through some old letters that I kept over the years and came across one from Bill. I was a lovely letter that brought tears to my eyes. He was a good neighbor to my parents on Marlborough Avenue in Detroit. I remember the hours that he spent throwing a baseball at the garage and catching it. That was dedication. I was also impressed with how much time he spent with Laddie. I had collie envy. Bill was ten years (or more) older than me so we didn't have a lot of contact as I was growing up but he was always friendly to me. The fact that he and Susan drove 2 hours from Plymouth to come to my mother's 80th birthday party says a lot. I can tell you it meant a lot to my mother.

“ Susan, my heart felt sympathies to you and the family. Bill was one of the most ethical and righteous attorneys I had the privilege of working with. At times his views were not always popular, but after analysis they followed the spirit and letter of law. I will always remember his decisive and principled opinions. He was one of my corporate "heroes" that I dealt with. May God Bless and watch over you and the family.

“ I have known Bill for only about 5 years, but I enjoyed his company, and loved playing hockey with and against him. I will miss seeing him on his walks with the dog in the neighborhood where we could chat a little. A great guy, who will be missed by all.

“ I extend my deepest sympathy to the Morman family. I cannot express how much I enjoyed playing hockey with Bill. A man I am happy to have met along the way and he will be missed out on the ice. Sincerely, Robert “ Bill and I played in the same hockey league for many years together. He was not only a great player but a great person. I will miss him a lot; especially his humor in the locker room.

“ A friend, teammate and friendly competitor will be missed.

I will never forget a night, 2 years ago, when Bill, Phil Leannais, Don Donohue and I lined-up for a face-off at center ice. It represented almost 290 years of experience.

He indeed did not go quietly into that long dark night.

He will remain one of my heros.
