“ I didn't get the honor of meeting Billy personally , but I am a friend of his dads. When I was sitting on my porch that Friday evening Billy and Jaylin walked by and they were very happy. I saw them playing basketball together and they were going to get ice cream. It shows me how things can change in a flash. My sympathy and condolences go out to all of you that loved and knew him.

“ Billy has been in my life for bout 20 years. He played a different role in my life over the years. At times he was a friend a teensge boyfriend, my cousin , my brother. He has always been there for me and my children! He has clothed us , fed us, provided a home for us! I cant believe he's gone and im gonna miss him more than words can say! We havent been as close lately but that never minimized the love we had! I Love and Miss you Billy, and will always be grateful I knew you and had a chance to have you in my life! My deepest sypathies to the whole family! I love you all!
