“ When I was a child, my grandfather told me that when your friends, and even people you have known for a brief amount of time, call you by a nickname, it means you have earned their respect. It can be earned in myriad ways, offering aid or perhaps through random acts of kindness. A much-needed ride home, maybe. Billy had 5-6 nicknames during our time together in college. I think 3-4 more surfaced through the years because of his relentless love for family, friends and community. He earned every one with a smile on his face and joy in his heart. I know it's often difficult at times to believe in angels. Not anymore. Thank you for being my friend, Billy. The honor was all mine. E

“ We lived right next to the Pawelak family when we were growing up. Billy was always SO nice to everyone in the neighborhood. I have so many great memories of all of us kids playing together for countless hours outside and shooting hoops on their driveway. Mr. and Mrs. Pawelak, Diane, and family you are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

“ Bill or should I say Thrill Bill, i am going to miss you man. I was the last person you spoke with your last day in office and I cant believe youre gone. We talked so much about our kids , family life! If i would have known that was going to be my last time seeing you bro i would have gave you the biggest hug ever. Love you man. Not going to be the same on our floor without you.

“ Billy was the first person I ever met when I moved to MI in 1978. He was such a nice guy with a wonderful smile. It was great growing up with him. Feel so sorry for his parents and his sister. This is a heartbreaker. My love to Frank, Joan, Diane and Billy's family.

Even though I didn't know Bill for that long, whenever we did speak he was always the nicest guy ever! Can't believe he is gone in the physical but I know he's definitely and angel and will forever be missed!
