“ I extend my sincere condolences to the entire Perrett family. When our loved ones die we mourn. And we may ask. What has happened to them? Are they suffering? Are they watching over us? Can we help them? Will we ever see them again?. These are questions that people have thought about for thousands of years. They are important questions. No matter who we are or where we lived the answer concerns each one of us; the Bible holds out a wonderful hope for our loved ones here (John 5:28,29) Jesus promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. God's promise is a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21:3,4) this is the time we all can look forward to being reunited with our loved ones right here on a paradise earth (Psalms 37:11,29) hope this brings hope and comfort to the family

“ I extend my sincere condolences to the entire Perrett family. I too have experienced the loss of a loved one and can sympathize with you and know how it causes a great void in our lives, but we can find strength in God’s promise to reunite us with them by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth! (John 5:28, 29; Psalms 37:11, 29). As the days and weeks pass and you return to life’s normal routine, may this precious hope that awaits us and your cherished memories of William bring you a measure of comfort at this most difficult time.
