“ The loss of this wonderful man can not be measured. I feel so blessed I was able to have him in my life as long as I did. I am happy he is finally able to be with grandma that he has missed so much. I will miss him until the day we are reunited again. I love you!

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by God, that he will wipe every tears and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ Christine: What an incredible legacy your Dad has left! I did not know him but by working with his daughter I know that he was a person of deep faith as are you, that he was a person who trusted completely in God's will for our lives as do you. You and your family are in my prayers....God bless. Anne Dietz

“ Growing up I had this feeling that I missed out on so much because I lost my own grandparents before graduating from high school. After marrying into the Sheridan family, I found myself blessed with an abundance of new family members especially Bill and Eileen. In the short number of years that I have been a part of the family, I have been able to learn so much about life, love, and grace that can only come through wisdom. I no longer feel like I missed out and I mainly have Gramps to thank for that. I will never forget our last conversation and I will always keep my word.

“ ...The angels welcomed one of their own home today. ...What a remarkable man he was and has left a legacy of unknown measure to all mankind. He will be remembered always by those who had the good grace to have known and loved him. You have once again been reunited with your bride! Love and Peace At Last.
