“ I am so sorry for your family's loss of Whiney. I used to work at Woodhaven Retirement Community in the activities dept. I remember Bob and Whiney playing Noodle Ball. She really knew how to hit that balloon. And when she did...she would get the biggest grin on her face. She and Bob were some of my favorites. They actually became almost family. I miss them both and I know that they are happy to be together again in Heaven. I would have come today, but I have a terrible cold and I did not want to pass it on. The very best to your family. Bob and Whiney were the best!

“ The love and support of a mother can never be replaced, but we hope you find some strength, in the love of family and in the warm embrace of friends.
