“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com
Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ She was introduced to me as "EVIL" jokingly by her very pregnant sister, my wife, she said call me Evie i did, she called me Bro, My memory of her I cherish most, and am most grateful for is this, after my mom died in 1998 she called me and said " Hey im down here in Nashville, your kids are living with my parents in Westland, and your in Long Beach, Ca, how about I convince my parents to drive them down, tell them to visit their aunt, you fly down and surprise them!!?? " Thats exactly what happened

“ My condolences to the Smith family. Yvette was a special person. I haven't seen her for a while but I know she was the pride and joy of her parents growing up. She was a little spit fire growing up and you couldn't help but love her. She always had a smile and could make you laugh even when you really didn't want to. She will be greatly missed but I'm sure she is having a blast hanging with her brother Frank and her dad. May they all rest in peace.

Praying for her mom and sisters that she has left behind that the Lord be with them and comfort them during this time.

Evie, we love you and will miss you but it's time to Rock and Roll with Frank.

*Love,
Janet (Miller) Hatch*

“ This is a picture of Aunt Evie and myself, her niece Nicole. An awesome Aunt and person . I will miss her very much. And wish I could talk to her one last time. She could always make me laugh and was always there when I needed her . When no one else would listen to me complain , she would and she would complain with me. She will always be dear to my heart and I hope that she watches over all of us from the heavens above . I love you Aunt Vette!

So sad to hear that Evie now has gone to a much better place and is with Dad and Frankie.. so many memories of Evie when she was still a little girl in the back yard with this animal that she called a dog but I still question that.. they had some sort of a diaper on it so that it wouldn't go all over the back yard.. I pray your journey is complete and now you can still watch over your Mom and sister(s)..Bless you Evie..

“ 1 file added to the album New Album Name

No farewell words were spoken,
No time to say good-bye,
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why,
Our hearts still ache in sadness,
And secret tears still flow, ††
What it meant to lose you,
No one will ever know...
