“ We are so sorry to hear about your father passing. Joe truly lived the American Dream. As long as heaven has good food, a quite place to rest and lots of hockey Joe will be just fine. If you need anything just call. God Bless.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Zbigniew will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Zbigniew again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Zbigniew seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Mike, Belinda and boys, Please know that my heart is saddened for the loss of your "Papa Joe". Even though I didn't know him well, it is difficult to lose a parent/grandparent. Know that you all are in my prayers.

“ When I think of Joe, I smile. We could hear Joe coming down the halls of American House, he would be singing at the top of his lungs. I thought a few of the residents in the dining room were going to hurt him. Joe would sing while they were waiting for their meals. Some appreciated Joe's singing abilities, and others not so much. Joe didn't care, he just kept on singing. We will all miss you here at American House Joe. Love, Cindy
